

It's Easy to Feel Proud...

when you've been a leader in producing the highest quality cultivated Pacific white shrimp for 30 years.

With over 6,000 acres of production farms geographically diversified in ideal growing conditions on the Pacific coast of Ecuador, Honduras and Nicaragua, we never have to compromise on quality. And with our vertically integrated production we have the control to deliver reliably, consistently and sustainably year after year to an ever-growing list of satisfied customers who demand the best and sell Seajoy shrimp with pride.

Seajoy Shrimp – Good for the Environment... Good for You!
